Television and Film Star James Morrison to Attend Groundbreaking for Beaumont High School Theater.

Star of FOX'S Series "24" will speak at Beaumont Event.

Actor James Morrison will attend and speak at the upcoming groundbreaking of the Beaumont High School Theater, Bogh Engineering has announced today. The Groundbreaking is scheduled to take place on Monday June 7, 2010 at the Beaumont High School Campus at 10:30 A.M. The public is welcome.

Named one of the 10 best actors on TV by MSN, James Morrison brings a wide variety of theatrical accomplishments to share with Beaumont Theater Buffs.

James has appeared in the films Catch Me If You Can, The One, Falling Down, Abilene, Wilderness Survival for Girls and Jarhead.

On television, he is currently appearing on HawthoRNe for TNT.

James is probably best known publically for his role as Bill Buchanan in seasons four, five, six and seven of FOX's 24.

He has also appeared as McQueen in the one and only season of FOX's Space: Above and Beyond. Since the mid-'80's he's undertaken numerous episodic assignments including Six Feet Under, West Wing, Frasier, Millennium, The X-Files, and Cold Case, among many others.

Among his peers, James is best known and respected for his work as a Playwright, Director and Film Maker. His Films, Acting and Productions have received numerous awards. (www.jpmmorrison.com)

Mr. Morrison will kick off the first construction project to be funded by Measure Z, The Beaumont Unified School District's recently approved School Bond. Mr Morrison is expected to talk about the importance of ensuring Arts maintains a role in the education of students.
